Sean Osworth

Director of Consulting and Vice President at The Nth Power Inc.
Greater Philadelphia Area

Summary

I am a Lead Consultant with The Nth Power, specializing in the Oracle Enterprise Performance Management Suite of software as well as many related technical software, database, and programming languages. I am involved in all aspects of EPM project activities including pre-sales, requirements gathering and analysis, solution design, installation and configuration, implementation, calculation design and optimization.

My specialties include metadata and data integration using multiple ETL technologies, Essbase application design, and creating, optimizing and troubleshooting advanced calculation flows in the Essbase calculation language. Other areas of expertise involve Oracle Planning, as well as the Excel Add-in and Smart View VBA toolkits. Additionally, I am a 123OLAP certified Planning and Essbase trainer.
